

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

It was only a couple of weeks ago that a nice elderly lady asked me: "Do you really go into Los Angeles each week-end to spend a day with your family or is it that you have to leave town each Saturday after the paper comes out?" I assured her at the time that it was the former. If she asked me today I would answer "Both." For last week happened one of those things which insurance policies classify as "an Act of God."

EMBARRASING—That, however, is not what Phil Delano, new president of the Chamber of Commerce called it although it may have sounded something like that. . . . The trouble is that too many people here—all men, by the way—haven't the pure, simple, innocent and/or unsuspecting mind such as mine—if any—is . . . so when that picture of Phil, herding his election as C. of C. president appeared last Friday in close conjunction with a story of a burglary at the Palm Springs Drug and Import company, of which he is co-owner, a lot of his friends, so-called, pounced upon it to rib him. And they did it gleefully. Which to my aforesaid pure, innocent and so on, mind, was reprehensible.

MORE OF THE SAME—A newspaper, you know, has a make-up just as well-planned as that of any woman from eight to eighty. When it's made up it's made up flat—no figuring on where the fold will come. . . . As stated above, being of an unsuspicious nature, the placement of Phil's picture with the story of the honor bestowed upon him, next to the other yarn, never entered my mind—and didn't until I ran into his partner, John Archibald, councilman, who roamed the Drive showing it. . . . Anyway (a) Phil's not an employee, he's an owner, (b) it was a good picture of him and we had a hard time getting it, (c) People should look before they leap—at conclusions, (d) He's a swell guy.

THE VILLAGE—Roy Medby is out looking for a horse. He acquired a fine saddle and now he's trying to find a horse to fit it. . . . Who was the chap who told the ocean to stand still and got dunked? Oh, yes, King Canute. Well, a tourist in town this week thought Harry Harper could control the elements, too. He came griping about the weather the other day, "Come down here to bake out," he said, "and it's cool. Where's the heat? Can't the Chamber of Commerce do something about it?" Harry said he'd like to but just didn't know where to find the knob to blast it over 100 degrees, which is what this tourist wanted.

AROUND TOWN—Recently a woman was arrested for shoplifting and fined $50. Police say that afterwards her husband beat her up. Why? Because she did it, because she got caught, or because it cost $50. . . . There's an ordinance on the city books which makes it a misdemeanor to let rubbish accumulate or to dump it in the city streets. It's section 3 of ordinance 18 and it looks as if there'd be plenty of action under its terms because Fire Chief Bill Leonosio says too many fires start from violation of this measure.

MUSIC—Well, anyway, "The Gypsy" got up there even if the other picks dropped out of the first three. . . . That "Shoo Fly and Apple Pan Dowdy" item (I always want to call it "Apple Pandemonium") is up, too. Read some place that Apple Pan Dowdy was a sort of deep dish pie and that the shoo fly part of the song comes because the odor of the dish attracts flies. Appetizing, isn't it? . . . Mrs. G., who has rested on her laurels ever since she beat me by picking "Besame Mucho" some months ago, finally comes through with another. She says "Sioux City Sue" will move up. "It's so corny, it's good," is her explanation. "And I think 'Prisoner of Love,' 16 years old, will make it, too."

THIS AND THAT—Guess I'll have to get myself a sponsor and put on a few commercials. . . . Each night, when I play records, I always try to quit before 9 p.m., so that I won't disturb the neighbors. The other night I slipped over a minute and the phone jangled. "This is a neighbor of yours," said a nice voice. "Oh, oh," thought I, "here it comes," and was all set to apologize when she continued, "Would you mind playing 'Ashby de la Zoch' again and make it a little louder? When trucks go by we can't hear it." Told the family about the incident and the young son said: "Gee, to think that I'd have a dad who is a disk jockey yet."

TRAFFIC—There's a big drive on by police to check cars on the highway for safety. Brakes, lights, horns, and so on. That's good, but there should be some way to examine the fellow back of the wheel. . . . Never saw so many people making sharp left turns without a signal, pulling away from curbs without looking, trying to squeeze by on the right at an intersection where you plan to turn right and have gotten as close to the right lane as possible, passing on a just at the crest of a hill, on a two-lane road, refusing to dim wandering lights—that's just a few items. . . . And then there are those friendly truck drivers who wave you on at a blind curve and just then comes a big truck in the opposite direction.

City's Chances to Get Torney "Good"

NEW HOME FOR SUN—Architect Paul Hammerburg's sketch of the new home for The Desert Sun in the Palm Springs Corporation's Arcade development. The R. H. Grant Construction company is doing the work. They plan to open an office here for the project includes a modern new two-story building on Palm Canyon drive housing firms from the Palm Springs Drug company to the Western Union. Offices are planned upstairs with elevator service. The Grant company is also building 200 homes for veterans here. The Sun building, modern in every respect, is planned to be ready in the fall.

City's Plea Put Before U. S. Officials

City Manager Tells Of Progress in Call From Desert Sun

In a long distance telephone conversation Wednesday night between William E. Alworth, Palm Springs city manager and a Desert Sun reporter, it was learned that the city's chances of obtaining all of the Torney General Hospital property are "good". Although Alworth declared that there was no definite assurance that the city's application for the property would, in the end, be favorably acted upon by government officials, he nevertheless expressed great hope that such would be the case.

PRESENTS PLEA

Alworth, together with Councilman Culver Nichols, left Palm Springs by air last Monday, armed with a lengthy petition setting forth reasons why the government should turn over all of the Torney properties to Palm Springs.

The two left here with the blessings of the Community Hospital Association directors, the Desert School District and numerous other civic and non-profit organizations, who hope to find space on the Torney grounds to conduct their ever-expanding activities. Most of these organizations endorsed the city's application while others give the city authority to use the names of their organization in order to bolster the application.

BURN "MIDNIGHT OIL"

However, the long distance call found both Alworth and Nichols pouring over their original application with the view to changing many of its salient features. It was 8:30 p.m. in Palm Springs when contact with Alworth was made and although it was 11:30 p.m. in Washington, the two city officials were found "burning mid-night oil" in the laborious task of revising the application. "We have been working all day and most of the night ever since we arrived here," declared Alworth.

NEW REGULATIONS

Alworth and Nichols found on arriving in Washington, that new regulations had been placed in force relative to the acquisition of surplus property by the government. It was because of these (Please Turn to Page Four)

Housing Need for Teachers Less Critical

The situation is well in hand—apparently.

Miss Katherine Finchey, superintendent of the Desert School district, said today that, due to publicity given the seriousness of the housing shortage for teachers, most of them were set for the coming term.

Three weeks ago Miss Finchey called attention of Villagers to a lack of adequate housing for teachers in the local schools. She said at that time that unless moderate-priced housing of a standard commensurate with the requirements was available, the Village might lose some of its prized instructors to the detriment of the schools.

The response was immediate and good. Most of the faculty for the new year has been provided for and the remainder seem destined to find what they want. "Of course, some of the teachers had to sign up for the entire summer to get places for the fall, but this is all right with them. They have a place to live and Palm Springs will have an adequate and excellent staff of teachers," said Miss Finchey in thanking those who aided in solving the puzzle.

Off For Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Alschuler Leave for Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Alschuler, well known Palm Springs winter residents, left yesterday for their home in Chicago, where Mr. Alschuler is head of the Sentinel Radio corporation of Evanston, Ill. Before they return to the Village next October they plan a trip to Sweden in August.

During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reinboth, the latter, Mrs. Alschuler's sister, will occupy their home here, keeping it open all summer.

Suzanne Gets the Idea!

Not Missing, Just Gathering Food

Now you take the case of Suzanne Johnson, aged 4, daughter of Police Sergeant and Mrs. Orest Johnson. Suzanne heard about this Desert Sun drive for food for the starving Europeans. Being a real American, she decided she'd do her bit. But she forgot to tell her dad and mom.

Well, it seems that a few hours later, people at a local hotel, five blocks from the Johnson home, informed police a little girl was there, apparently lost. They brought her to the station where Ione Coble, on the desk, questioned her. She told Mrs. Coble her name was Johnson and the desk clerk started calling Johnsons.

Soon she came to the name of Sgt. Johnson.

"Yes, Suzanne is missing and we are scouring the neighborhood for her. Where is she? Is she safe?"

She was at her daddy's place of business and very safe.

And somebody in Europe is going to have something to eat because Suzanne got the idea.

Plans for Memorial Day Completed

First peace-time observance of Memorial Day in almost five years, will be observed here in Palm Springs Thursday, May 30, when services commemorating this country's war dead, will be held at local cemetery. The commemoration program is to be conducted under the auspices of the Owen Coffman Post, 519 of the American Legion and all residents and veterans are urged to attend.

It was pointed out that the heroes who fell in the war just closed by far exceeded the numbered dead in any previous armed conflict this country has waged.

ON ALL CONTINENTS

For the first time in the history of the United States graves of its war dead are to be found on all of the five continents of the world. There isn't an ocean on the face of the globe whose waters do not cover our naval and army dead. Many a pilot flying over the barren wastes of the Arctic ocean carrying supplies to our men and allies who never reached their destination are presumed to have been lost beneath its waters. The same story holds true of the Antarctic.

There are many plots of ground beneath which many of this country's dead lie: in Africa, England, France, Germany, and the rest of Europe. In addition, there are military cemeteries in Asia, Australia, New Zealand, India, South America and on many of the islands that dot the far Pacific.

AT 10:30 A. M.

The services here at the cemetery will start at 10:30 a.m. Father Francis L. McGann, recently arrived and pastor of Our Lady of Solitude church, who is scheduled to make the Memorial Day address at the cemetery, personally saw many of this country's heroes die during his five years as a chaplain commander in the Navy. He saw action on the U. S. Intrepid, aircraft carrier. This ship took part in Naval battles from Guadalcanal to Tokyo.

The following program has been arranged:

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Friday, May 30th, 1946, is the Day set aside by our President as the Nation's Memorial Day to pay tribute to Our Honored Dead; and

WHEREAS, on that day Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion in Palm Springs will conduct services in the Village Cemetery for those of Our Own who have made the Supreme Sacrifice;

NOW THEREFORE, I, CLARENCE A. HYDE, Mayor of the City of Palm Springs, do proclaim Memorial Day—Thursday, May the 30th, 1946, as a Day of Prayer and Tribute to Our Honored Dead and request that all business houses be closed during the hours of 9:00 o'clock a.m. and 11:00 o'clock a.m., while said Memorial Services are in progress.

Dated at Palm Springs, California, May 22, 1946.

Drop Charges in Harton Case

Harry G. Harton, 47, employee at the Palm Springs Drug and Import company who was arrested last week on suspicion of misappropriating $1500 of the firm's funds, was scheduled to face Judge E. E. Theriault in city court today in preliminary hearing but it was indicated that he would be free of that charge tonight.

Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann said last night that it was expected the district attorney would move for dismissal of the charge at today's hearing.

Harton is being held under $10,000 bail and while freed of the burglary charge, still faced another tussle with the law. Chief Kettmann said that yesterday he had received a telegram from the warden of the state penitentiary at Gould, Arkansas, asking that a "hold" be placed on Harton pending possible extradition proceedings.

Village Markets Close Thursday

Come next Wednesday afternoon, do your shopping for Thursday AND Friday.

For the markets in Palm Springs will close on Thursday, Memorial Day.

Villagers are urged to do their buying for two days on Wednesday.

School Comes To End Today For Hundreds

For full page picture lay-out of Palm Springs high school graduate and other features incidental to graduation see Page 10 of today's issue of The Desert Sun. (Photos by Bernard of Hollywood.)

School came to an end today for Village youngsters of the Desert School district and young men and women of Palm Springs high school.

Exercises were held last night at the Nellie N. Coffman Junior high school for the eighth graders now eligible to become members of Palm Springs high school next fall.

Tonight graduation exercises will be held in the quadrangle of the high school for the class of 1946.

AWARDS GIVEN

All through the week, commencement programs have been held at the local schools. Sixth graders of four schools in the district, Frances S. Stevens, Cahulla, Cathedral City and Desert Hot Springs, staged a program on Wednesday at the former school. Awards were given by Miss Katherine Finchey, Desert district superintendent.

Lions club citizenship awards for sixth graders went to the following pupils:

Cahulla School — Gerylne Brooks, Keith Sanders.
Cathedral City School — Janis Hamilton, Gordon McMahan.
Desert Hot Springs School — Aurolyn Mayer, James Haidet.
Frances Stevens School — Mary Puentes, James Hicks.

At last night's exercises at Nellie N. Coffman school, Dr. Harry Smallenburg, research director for Los Angeles county schools, addressed the eighth graders, W. R. Hillery of the Desert board presented the diplomas after the class had been presented to him by George Mannington, principal. Fire Chief Urges Rubbish Clean Up

Fire Chief Bill Leonosio today urged all residents planning to leave for the summer, to have rubbish piles removed before they go.

Assistant City Manager Robert Petersen announced last week that the city waste disposal department would haul away the accumulated piles upon notification.

I'm anxious to see these rubbish piles removed not only because they're an eyesore but because they're a constant fire menace with hot weather coming on," said Chief Leonosio.

"The city's willing to do the job, so take advantage of the offer and lessen the fire menace here—it's for your own good," he said.

Hillery Wins School Post in Record Vote

In one of the largest turn-outs of voters in school elections in the history of the Village, 245 voters went to the polls last Friday to elect W. R. Hillery of Cathedral City to the Desert District board and Dr. Frank Purcell to the high school board.

Dr. Purcell was elected without opposition, getting 245 votes.

In the Desert District election, Hillery was given 170 votes to 74 for C. S. Bassett, his opponent.

Hillery is also on the high school board and his election to the elementary board was considered the first step in a move for closer coordination between the two boards to provide better and more economic educational facilities for the Village.

Make up of the two boards for the coming year will be:

High school — Charles Burke, Dr. Purcell, W. R. Hillery, Gordon Feekings and Judge E. E. Theriault.
Desert District — Mrs. R. F. Outcault, Mrs. Melba Bennett and W. R. Hillery.

Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman Awarded "Diploma"

Climaxing 19 years of active service as a member of the Desert School board, Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman, Palm Springs pioneer and founder of the Desert Inn, was awarded a special certificate diploma at the graduation exercises at the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School yesterday evening.

The diploma, which was signed by George Mannington, principal of the Nellie N. Coffman school, also bore the signature of Miss Katherine Finchey, Desert district superintendent, school board members and the faculty. The presentation was personally made by Miss Finchey.

Mrs. Coffman first became a member of the school board in 1923 and with the exception of the time she went abroad for four years, served continuously until the end of the school year of 1945-46.

Only First Class Mail Leaves City

Only first class mail and priority express, which can go by air, was being shipped out of Palm Springs today as result of the nation-wide railroad strike.

At the post office here it was reported last night that no mail was being serviced except first class items.

E. M. Swafford of the Railway Express company, said only certain priority items could be accepted during the strike.

The strike also forced some winter residents to prolong their stay in the Village.

Park Facilities Discussed by Head of State Offices

As a result of previous correspondence by Capt. Geo. True on recreational areas and the possibility of using school property for adult recreation, Verne S. Landreth, Chief of Division of Recreation, State of California, stopped, on passing through Cathedral City Monday, and met with those members of the Park Committee who were able to be present, and W. R. Hillery, at the home of Christina Lillian.

Mr. Landreth brought out many constructive points regarding park recreational areas which he is well qualified to discuss. He endorsed a recreational program, at emphasized the fact that statistics show that recreational areas which are not well supervised and planned prove in a short time to be more of a detriment than an asset.

He suggested the possibility of forming a Recreational District which idea was discussed favorably, and stated that should the use of the school grounds seem desirable this matter would come under the jurisdiction of the local school board.

The safety bicycle was first placed on the market in 1887.

Children Keep Fingers Crossed

There have been several cases of mumps in the Cathedral City school. The children have all been keeping their fingers crossed hoping no more cases would develop to interfere with their year-end program and activities.

Recess

It's summer time. So, due to the absence of reporters and the dearth of live news, the Cathedral City Round Up, after this week, will take a summer recess. It will be back again, brighter and better than ever in the fall.

In the meantime, the editor of The Desert Sun informs us he will print interesting items mailed directly to him each week. But be sure to have them there by Wednesday morning.

The editors of the Cathedral City Round Up appreciate the space given us by The Desert Sun to the happenings of our community and we will endeavor to keep you posted on events here to the fullest extent next year.

Need for Added Room at Cathedral School Emphasized

A sixth grade class of three girls and seven boys, the largest class to finish at our Cathedral City school, participated in the year-end program held by the four elementary schools of this district, at Frances S. Stevens school, Palm Springs, on Wednesday, May 22.

The fifth grade also took active part in the music and singing which was a tribute to the excellent leadership of Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mrs. Kathryn Rye, directors of instrumental and vocal music for the Desert District Schools.

The enrollment in our school this year has averaged between 55 and 60 pupils, an increase of practically 50% over previous years, and there is need of an additional room, the building of which is anticipated in the near future. The teachers, Miss Minnie Berry Ball and Mrs. Lulu Thompson, are to be highly commended for their excellent handling of such a large group in the present one room accommodations. However, it is hoped by all that this crowded condition can soon be remedied.

Mrs. Brown Leaves For Summer Vacation

Mrs. Ona Brown, well known Village socialite, left by airplane for a few days visit in Las Vegas before flying to Los Angeles and then to Santa Barbara.

She also plans to visit San Francisco and Mexico City during the summer months.

Community Church at Cathedral City Has Record Season

A congregational meeting was held at the close of the Sunday morning service at the Community church in Cathedral City and excellent reports of the waning year were heard.

The treasurer, Mrs. Robert Davall, reported that current receipts had met all liabilities, leaving a substantial balance which had been transferred to the building fund. The latter fund now stands at $2,119.35 and the church owns a valuable building lot.

Mrs. O. D. Wenger, superintendent of the Sunday School, reported an average attendance during the year of 45.

Mrs. John C. Abels, retiring president of the woman's auxiliary reported on contributions to missions, 500 community calls, garments for needy children overseas, also on Christmas packages to Indians in Arizona. The Auxiliary membership is now 35.

During the year, 16 new members were received in the church, three by Confessions of Faith, seven by transfer, and six associates. It contributed $160 to benevolent causes of the church.

Officers of the Cathedral City Community church are the Rev. John C. Abels, minister, Robert Davall, Fred Springer, Marion Wilkes and Mrs. H. E. Peterson, elders; Mrs. R. J. Loas, Mrs. O. D. Wenger, Mrs. Robert Davall, trustees; Mrs. Davall, treasurer.

At last Sunday's services a memorial gift of two vases was presented by Pasadena friends of Mrs. Grace Easley, a trustee and charter member, who died recently. The vases held roses taken from their gardens.

Personals

Jim and Mary Wolseth, and Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. Wolseth's mother, left early Wednesday morning for Los Angeles where they will stay for a month or longer. Jim will immediately enter the California Lutheran Hospital for a minor operation. Mrs. Ritchie will go to Laguna Beach Hotel for a week and then on to Seattle. Mary and Jim will also go to Seattle as soon as possible after Jim is out of the hospital. Mrs. Ann Duncan will be in charge of the Desert Lodge during their absence this summer. Mrs. Wolseth expects to be back here in Cathedral City in about two weeks to finish up details left undone at this time. All their friends wish them a happy and constructive summer.

Mrs. Stephen Champiney and her two daughters, Candace and Gertrude, were house guests of Mrs. Leon Wilbur last week.

Mrs. J. W. de Kramer of Pasadena was a recent visitor to Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Headley of the Desert View apts. are leaving soon for their former home state of Iowa. Will return the latter part of the summer.

Mrs. Erwin J. Bartlett, Mrs. Edward Haas, and daughter, Kathryn, sister of Mrs. W. J. Naef, visited Cathedral City for a few days last week on their way to Phoenix.

Mrs. Peterson entertained several guests at a tea at their ranch home last Wednesday, in honor of Miss M. Ball.

Seen shopping at Palm Springs last week were Mrs. Wm. Hillery and son, Jack, the latter looking better than ever before, after spending so much time in the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowhurst, a former executive of the Port Hueneme Naval Base, spent a few days looking over spots of interest in the city.

Mrs. Flora Lee was a recent visitor to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dorn are preparing for a trip north to attend daughter Connie's graduation from Mill's College. We understand Connie graduates with honors from this university. She also received a scholarship when she graduated four years ago from the San Bernardino high school.

The boys' choir which sang the mass at Our Lady of Solitude church last Sunday was superb. The voices of these boys have been beautifully trained and are a credit to those responsible for their training. We wish them much success in their careers as singers.

Mrs. W. Colglazier and Mrs. Phillips are working hard on the Cathedral City canned food project for the needy folk overseas. They will also accept check donations made out to "Emergency Food Collections" Palm Springs.

There was an informal get-together Tuesday evening, honoring Mrs. Margaret Potter on her birthday at the Crawford trailer home.

Dear Editor:
Here's a hand to the person or persons responsible for the nice newsy Cathedral City page. It is something we have needed for a long time and I, as well as many others I know, really enjoy it. I like to keep in touch with what is going on in our town, so again I say, "I thank you."

In response to an invitation from The Desert Sun for Cathedralites to write their summer vacation experiences, Mrs. Edna Cobb sent a letter from Raton, New Mexico.

"Have seen fishing streams that would make Ray Potter grab the family bus and head for the mountains of Toas, N. M. Also lakes where the ducks would make Bud Kelly forget his hunting dog, grab his shot-gun and go hunting. We ran into rain, hail and snow and liked it!"

Hiccap — What Is It?

By ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

Hiccap is the bob-tailed term for the Hollywood unit of the Independent Citizens' Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. The story of its origin and present-day activities is sufficient to give Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Citizen acute indigestion for Hiccap is nothing more nor less than a violent case of political hiccup.

During these pre-election days, the members of the Hollywood unit are actively engaged in a campaign to defeat Governor Warren; Senator Knowland; Judge Goodwin Knight for Lieutenant Governor; Frank Jordan, Secretary of State; and Fred Howser for Attorney General. Their candidates are Robert Kenney for Governor; Ellis Patterson for the United States Senate, John Shelley for Lieutenant Governor; Lucille Gleason for Secretary of State; and Edmund Brown for Attorney General. To date, Hiccap has made no endorsements for the office of State Controller. However, their literature states that a recommendation for "no indorsement" is not to be interpreted as indorsement of the incumbent. Thomas Kuchel is the present State Controller. Recently appointed by Governor Warren, Mr. Kuchel is a most able and competent administrator of that office. That, in itself, would cause Hiccap to turn thumbs down on him since their entire slate of candidates, including their left-wing congressional candidates, is anything but representative of true Americanism.

THEIR PET PEEVE

Hiccap's pet peeve is the congressional Committee on Un-American Activities. It makes no difference to them that that committee has justly earned the overwhelming confidence of all loyal American citizens. Neither does it make any difference to them that every time one of their favorite candidates, Ellis Patterson, raises his voice in the House of Representatives to abolish that vital committee, he is soundly trounced by a vote of confidence in it that would discourage and shame the average man.

There is a reason for Hiccap's dislike of the Committee on Un-American Activities, a dislike that is shared by all units of the Independent Citizens' Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, as well as their recent affiliate, the Sidney Hillman C.I.O.-Political Action Committee. That reason can be found in the Congressional Record, March 6, 1946, page A 1218, and is as follows:

"Jo Davidson, national chairman of ICCASP, sponsored the Congress of American Soviet Friendship which was cited as a Communist front on March 29, 1944. Mr. Davidson also signed a statement in honor of George Dimitroff, former head of the Communist International and one of the bloodiest revolutionists the world has ever known."

FROM THE RECORD

"Treasurer of the group is Frederick March, who sponsored the Congress of American Soviet Friendship and seven other Communist front organizations. "Chairman of the finance committee is Herman Schumlin, who was a member of the executive committee of the so-called American Friends of the Chinese People, a Communist front organization, together with Phillips Jaffee, alias J. W. Phillips, who was recently convicted of securing State Department secrets illegally."

That is only a part of the story as recorded in the Congressional Record. It stands to reason that groups of people who align themselves with factions who are not in tune with the American way, don't like to be exposed. In spite of their shouts of witch hunt, the congressional Committee on Un-American Activities will hold its place in American history, simply because the American people intend that it shall.

Election day is Tuesday, June 4. The voters of California will not be lulled to sleep by Hiccap. They will not vote for Hiccap's candidates. They know how to keep California safe and secure.

SPOTS

Before Your Eyes
By BILL RASHALL

Try and find a place to park on Palm Canyon Drive between the hours of 8 and approximately 11 p.m. It's almost as bad as it was during the height of the season. Thursday night every spot along the curb from near the Plaza Theatre to past Mr. Dee's was occupied. The weather this month of May is the cause, of course, and is the reason for the crowds that still remain to enjoy it.

The most delightful interview I have had in Palm Springs since I started struggling with this column was one I enjoyed so immensely with little Miss Margaret O'Brien. She had just rejoined her mother at The Dunes after a visit to the Palm Springs Theatre where she saw a double feature. "Both pictures were delightful and I enjoyed them so much," Margaret beamingly declared.

The star's mother, Mrs. Gladys O'Brien, who looks a great deal like her daughter, said they had been staying at the Ingleside Inn for the past week but were leaving today for Los Angeles. Margaret, Mrs. O'Brien said, has to rehearse with Jimmy Durante for their radio appearance Monday night in the play "Music for Millions." "Snuggle" and little Margaret co-starred in the motion picture of the same play.

"I like Mr. Durante very much," smiled Margaret. The juvenile cinema star looks exactly as she does on the screen in my opinion and in the short conversation I had with her she was as well poised as any adult. It was a refreshing experience to talk to such a fine little person.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

There was another mother at the Dunes whose eyes actually shone as she looked at her daughter whom she hadn't seen in more than a year. Mrs. Margery Meister, hostess at the "Spot" for many months, looked with pride at her daughter, Eleanor, who has been touring the United States as a skater with the Icecapades. Expected here next week, the daughter remembered that her mother's birthday fell on Thursday, May 23, and came on to Palm Springs to be with her mother in time for the birthday celebration. Now, Mrs. Meister has two of her children with her. Bill, her six foot tall son, is also employed at the Dunes.

At Mr. Dee's I found Clint Jones enjoying the company of his beautiful wife. She has been in town all week helping Clint in their search for a home in which to live here. They found one for the summer and Clint said he hoped before next winter rolls around again the home he plans to build here will be ready for occupancy. Optimistic guy! Harry Harper can tell him how long it takes to build a home in this town. Anyway, the Joneses plan to be "solid" citizens here—and that's a good thought.

Al Herman, Los Angeles automobile dealer who is the new partner of "Dany" Danzinger, was introduced to us last night. He was walking up and down in front of his new business interest, the Lido, exclaiming in superlatives about the weather here. He plans to spend the summer here and we hope to be around here about July or August to ask him again how he likes the weather here. Jerry McCoid, formerly of the Somerset House in Beverly Hills and the Cantina Room of the Chapman Park Hotel, is the new talent attraction at the Lido. She sings and plays the piano and she's good, too.

Ran into Bill Colburn, his wife and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Bridgeford of San Francisco. The quartet were doing the town. Colburn said he and his wife were leaving soon for Rancho Santa Fe for the summer. Herman Levin of the Caliente Cottages was showing J. G. Oberndorf the Village. The latter is now subdividing a huge tract of land at Banning and he almost sold me a lot, too. He wanted to know how to get in touch with Carl Barkow of the Banning Record.

Talk about "Spots Before Your Eyes"—the guard at the west gate stationed at the Army Air Base called the police department and reported a blazing light atop San Jacinto. However, when police looked in the same direction all they saw was stars.

new rules, that a good portion of the voluminous application had to be changed.

Earlier in the week a telegram had been received from Alworth and Nichols which said the two were obtaining good cooperation and assistance from Congressman John Phillips of the 21st District, and Senators William E. Knowland and Sheridan Downey.

"So far," Alworth said over the telephone, "it looks good. I can't say positively but both Culver and I are highly encouraged by the reception which has so far been accorded our mission to Washington."

Both men expect to return to Palm Springs early next week, depending on the availability of transportation, but in any event Alworth said they would not leave until their revised application was placed in the hands of the proper authority. In his telegram earlier in the week he declared that Nichols and he would not return until they had an answer of "yes" or "no" to the city's plea for the property.

"I dislike immensely to give the citizens of Palm Springs the idea that we will get all of Torney General," asserted Alworth, "but the Desert Sun can say if it wishes, that Nichols and I are in great hope that our mission to Washington, D.C., will not have been made in vain."

Clarence A. Hyde, mayor, when advised of the telephone conversation with Alworth, declared that he had just received a telegram from Alworth and Nichols which said that the new application had been filed with the government Thursday afternoon. In addition, and this was good news for the city, Hyde said, Alworth was pressing for the use of the government's waste disposal plant here.

OPTIMISTIC NOTE

"From the tone of Alworth's telegram," the Mayor said, "it is apparent that Palm Springs will be permitted to cut into the sewage lines of the government's waste disposal plant right away." He also added that in the end, it looks like Palm Springs would eventually obtain the ownership of the plant.

Owen Coffman Post Officials Will be Installed in June

Officers of Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion, headed by G. K. Sanborn as commander, will be installed in public installation ceremonies to be arranged early in June, it was announced at a meeting of the post Tuesday night.

Elected with Commander Sanborn were the following: Tom Keilly, first vice-commander; Robert Ellsworth, second vice-commander; Pat Connolly, chaplain; Jay Morrison, historian; Homer Jenkins, sergeant-at-arms; and Jack Holditch, Wibur Davis and Cecil Isenogle, executive committee.

All three men in the commander and vice-commander positions fought in World War II, with Commander Sanborn, serving with the Seabees and Keiley and Ellsworth in the army. Sanborn also had served in World War I.

The installation ceremonies will be handled by a special World War II team from the Riverside American Legion Post. The exact day of the installation here will depend upon completion of arrangements by the Riverside team. Announcements will be made of the date as soon as it is set as the public will be invited to attend, Commander Harold Lienau announced.

Announcement of a fine gift to the post by Wilbur Davis, owner of the Colonial House and lately a major in the U. S. Infantry, was made at the meeting. Mr. Davis is buying and presenting to the post ten guns to be used in ceremonies such as firing squads and similar events.

Bill Hillery Comments on Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

Frank C. Russell, president of the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce, called a meeting of the directors Sunday morning at the corner of Allen Avenue and Second street. The primary object being to inspect the proposals for carrying flood waters away from that point and to protect the land that will be the future playground. The county method of making a depressed center of Allen avenue out to the main wash was approved. It was also voted to submit the petition for the formation of a fire district and to do so immediately. The directors likewise approved the president's selection of an executive committee to function during the summer. They are Raymond G. Potter, Carl Higgins, and Ben Scott.

Last week my notes were abbreviated and the thanks of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Henry for the spontaneous turnout of the residents to fight the fire that threatened disaster to their business and other business houses adjacent to theirs was omitted. Here it is again. P. H. Wedel, R. H. Sherrill and Mrs. J. J. Grove, stockholders of the local water utility and the townspeople company, met with the writer on Sunday and made a tour of the area and inspected the development that is taking place here. Plans for the future were discussed. Among other items was a tentative site for fire equipment should it be wanted.

The enthusiasm of our community together with that of the larger area of the Desert School District was very gratifying. I have not checked the number of votes that were cast by Cathedral City Precinct but it was not something to be ashamed of. When our local citizens registered to vote, no one apparently thought of any election in the offing except the primary election on June 4, so the records show that fifty voters qualified for the primary election, but were not eligible for the school election as they had not made their affidavit within the forty day period required by law to elapse between registration and an election. Many of the fifty either went to save polls or learned in time to save themselves the trip, and they are due for thanks for their intent. Thanks and thanks, and I will try to merit your confidence and aid the other hard pressed members of the school board in the problems that confront a growing community that require a substantial tax rate to give our youngsters a sound and adequate education.

Tuesday of this week, Colliers interium legislative committee conducted a hearing in San Bernardino to study the highway and road needs of that county. A group of Riverside county officials and others attended the hearing to learn procedure and points to make their own presentation of road problems when the hearing for this county is held, probably in August. Boiled down it appears that if we want improved and adequate highways, we shall have to authorize a higher gas tax to finance the program being developed. It seems that when people are asked if they want more taxes the natural answer is no, but if the question is, do they want better highways, the answer is "yes". In some form or other, we will have to answer that question before long. The matter is mentioned here because it will be an issue and will effect the desert and our particular communities.

It's a Boy!

Sam Satlitz Happy
As Ronald Arrives

Sam Satlitz of Sam and Leo's was stepping high, wide and handsome Tuesday—all day and most of the night. And Sam had personal reasons for being in a high state of glee. He still is.

Tuesday morning at 9 a.m., his wife, Cecile, gave birth to a 7½ pound boy at the Community hospital and furthermore, the proud father boasted that he knew all the time the baby would be a boy! As a matter of fact, he and his wife had the tiny arrival's name all picked out before the event occurred. He is to be called Ronald Paul and he is the first male addition to the family.

When asked about the birth of his boy, he shouted "I've got a boy at last." Asked to clarify this statement, he replied that he and his wife are the parents of twin daughters, Jean and Judy, now five years old, and another girl, 18 months old, called Myrna. Doctors in attendance at the birth were Dr. P. A. Staley and Dr. Coons of Riverside. Mother and child are reported doing nicely.

If a child annoys you, quiet him by brushing his hair, is the latest advice. If this doesn't work, use the other side of the brush and the other end of the child.

Grant Wood and Bride Back Here To Make Home

Back in Palm Springs and back on the job he first held in Palm Springs, was Grant Wood and his pretty bride, the former Mrs. Mary Peurrung of Middletown, Ohio. They were married at the Mission Inn, Riverside, May 11.

Officiating at the marriage, which was held in St. Cecilia chapel, was Bishop McConnell of the Church of Latter Day Saints of Riverside.

The bride and groom had as their attendants, Darrell Dolan of Los Angeles and Mrs. Claudia McKenzie, also of that city. A reception followed at the Inn with Mrs. Ernestine Wood of Palm Springs, mother of the groom, relatives and friends attending. A dinner party for the members of the bridal party was held that evening at the Inn.

Mr. Wood was recently discharged from the U. S. Air Corps after serving 3½ years. He grew to manhood in Banning, leaving there to attend USC, from which he was graduated. He has been connected with newspapers and magazines in Palm Springs and Los Angeles most of the time since and at one time published the Palm Springs News.

He managed the Desert Sun for the publishers, Carl Barkow and the late Harvey Johnson, from 1931 to 1933, and worked for the Hollywood Reporter from 1939 to 1942, when he enlisted in the Army Signal Corps in which he advanced to the rank of first lieutenant. He was later transferred to the Air Corps. It was while he was stationed at Middleton, Ohio, that he met the young lady who later became his bride.

The couple have purchased a lot in Rancho Mirage where they plan to erect a home. They are at present making their home in the Village where Mr. Wood is advertising manager for The Desert Sun.

Hilton McCabe Joins Prominent Local Law Firm

Hilton McCabe, 39, graduate of the University of California, former secretary to Justice Edwards of the California supreme court, then five years with a large Los Angeles law firm followed by five years in the army, will be with the Palm Springs office of the firm of Thompson and Colgate, attorneys. He was recently discharged by the army with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel after being overseas three years with the 8th Air Force.

Mr. Colgate will also remain here in the Palm Springs office. Mr. McCabe will move with his family and is buying a home here.

The law firm of Thompson and Colgate now consists of H. L. Thompson, Roy Colgate, Robert D. Allan, James M. Wortz and Mr. McCabe. Allan and Wortz are also just out of the armed forces.

E. A. Parkford Here To Soak Up Sunshine

E. A. Parkford, well known southern California realtor and developer, was in Palm Springs this week on a brief vacation, soaking up a bit of sunshine after days of mist and clouds in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Parkford is expected to join him here today.

Joseph Seymour In Village on Visit

Joseph Seymour, well known Riverside attorney and a candidate for the superior court bench at the June 4 primary, was in Palm Springs yesterday on a brief visit, calling on friends here. He attended yesterday noon's Lions club meeting.

From here he went to Blythe and other points to the east in the county.

Doing the Village with Moya Henderson

Commencement exercises and the closing of Bullocks and Desmond's officially announce that summer is here although the weather belies it. Many families are leaving the Village with the close of school and taking off on vacations and trips, others are content to just stay home and relax, swimming in the day time and cooling off out at the ball game come evening. With graduation the Village loses one of its most popular couples, the John A. Hookeys. Major Hookey was stationed at Torney for a long spell and before his discharge this spring, was stationed in the Bay area. Although their home is in Detroit, Michigan, the Hookeys have waited till the close of school before returning so that Joanne might graduate with her class from high school. She will attend Albion College in the fall. Carol Burket, another graduating senior, received word this week that she has been accepted for the fall term at Pomona. This college has been most choosy this year and we understand that only a very small number of Southern California applicants were admitted to the Freshman Class. Another happy boy is Bob Hoover, who has had his application accepted at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Bob plans a medical career and is particularly happy to make Michigan as it is his father's alma mater.

VAQUEROS RIDE AGAIN

The Vaqueros ride again. For the first time since the beginning of the war, the Vaqueros del Desierto hit the trail Thursday morning. Starting off the fun, was a western dinner at Rogers Ranch Wednesday eve and into the saddle the next morning for a ride which will take them to Bunkers Ranch, Hemet Lake and up the side of Santa Rosa. This well known ride brings equestrians to the Village from all over Southern California and a very merry time is had by all.

The Desert Sun—5

What Goes On at Rancho Mirage

Dave and Jane Culver are enjoying the last few days in their house before turning it over to the new purchaser, Mrs. Georgia Develin. The Culvers are going on a belated honeymoon to Mexico City, then back to Balboa Island for the summer and into their new pumice block house on Sahara Road in the fall. Jane says she's going to get Dave that long-needed rest and get caught up on rhumba and bull fighting.

Jim and Carolyn Clark went to town this week to visit Carolyn's folks, the Bo Roos' and to accompany them to the Operetta Vagabond King, then make the Strip hot spots. Jim came back armed with plans and priorities for their new house.

The McVeys and McCabes came back last Sunday to look at their lots and get two more. Hugh McVey is an engineer with Hughes Aircraft and "Mac" McCabe is office manager for Eastside Brewery. Wonder if he can help us break the drought down here.

I spent the week from Tuesday 'till today with one of my bosses, Ronald Button, buying equipment at Port Hueneme. In case any of you World War II Veterans are interested, here's the story.

First, there are no jeeps, station wagons or staff cars.

Second, the equipment is unused, most of the pieces having from zero to thirty-five miles, and you can have it in a crate if you wish.

Third, it is all Marine Corps equipment designed for the South Pacific and nearly all has front drive and a winch.

F. C. Parker is in charge of the fourteen million dollar sale and is doing a beautiful job. According to Mr. Miller, the Publicity Director, the sale goes on all next week can, by showing his discharge, be qualified to inspect and then and there purchase and drive away as many as seven unused vehicles.

Priority by number is out since Wednesday. However, pay attention to the instruction book which is very clearly written and take plenty of currency or certified checks along. Make a second or even a third selection and save yourself a lot of walking as you can't take your own cars in to the grounds.

When I parked in front of the phone office this morning, Bill Nash played with the electric tire pump and winch on one of the pick-ups. His comment was "There's no use going out to Rancho Mirage, for a couple of weeks — You guys will be busy

Villagers Purchase Idyllwild Resort, Plan Development

Al Santell, motion picture director, is reported to have sold his 35 acre estate called "Four Chimneys" located at Idyllwild, mile high mountain resort, to a syndicate of Palm Springs residents. The transaction, which was handled by Muriel E. Fulton, local realtor for the buyers and Jerry Johnson of Idyllwild for the sellers, was reported to have involved more than $100,000.

The property consists of a luxurious main lodge, guest cabins, swimming pool, badminton court and barbecue grounds. The new owners plan to operate the property as a resort hotel. At present, it will accommodate 18 guests and the new owners plan to enlarge this capacity.

The syndicate who purchased Four Chimneys consist of Grace Upham Bigelow, her son, Dudley, Muriel E. Fulton and John H. Downey. Downey, who will operate the resort-hotel, was resident manager of the El Mirador Hotel in Palm Springs up to the time he entered the service during the war. He recently returned after four years of service with the Army Air Forces, 31 months of which were spent overseas. He received his honorable discharge in the grade of Lieutenant Colonel.

playing with all those gadgets." "Doc" Gurley says "The Show Boat is on the way," and he is taking on Mr. Drew as a skipper.

Phat, you sure got yourself a hot-shot advertising man in Grant Wood. He nailed me the minute he saw me for a new ad. That's it, Folks.

Food Conservation

By HARRIET HENDERSON

How many housewives take a keen delight in making something out of nothing. My husband calls them "the mystery of the kitchen" or "an old friend with a new face."

What to do with left-over mashed potatoes? Ever try putting an egg and bit of minced onion in it, make patties, fry in bacon fat? Ever try Shepherd's Pie? An old favorite with me. Line a bake-dish with mashed potatoes. Grind up the end of that pot roast, with an onion, add left-over gravy, fill your potato lined bake-dish and spread mashed potato over the top. You can leave out the potato lining and just put them on top if you haven't enough.

Did you ever try a scallop of vegetables. Use up those odds and ends. Bottom layer in your casserole is potatoes, then that few green peas left from yesterday, a couple of outside stalks of celery, a carrot or two and an onion — yes, top layer potatoes, you have sprinkled each layer with clove salt and pepper, so put a couple of pork chops on top, dredged in flour, fill casserole 2/3 full of milk—cook 1½ hours.

Now for this new wheat flour business. In 1914-18, Canada sent a large portion of the wheat crop overseas. These recipes all are from my 1914 loose-leaf cookbook. All dark cakes with either molasses or chocolate in them, are made of half wheat and half barley flour. Try this:

1 cup sugar
¼ cup shortening
1 cup applesauce, strained
1 cup raisins and nuts
1 cup white flour
1 cup barley or whole wheat flour
1 tsp. soda
½ tsp. baking powder
1 egg
¼ tsp. salt, cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg

Bake in 10" square pan, 375 degrees about 40 min.

All sponge cakes call for potato flour—no wheat flour at all.

Rice flour is scarce now, but we used it in pound cakes and loaf cakes, in 1914. A pretty layer cake is one layer chocolate, one pink, one spiced. Did you ever make marblecake? See—you can camouflage this darker flour.

Desert Produce to Enlarge Facilities to Expand Business

C. Louis Beck and family were off for a summer vacation at Lake Tahoe. But before he went he bought a new site on Indian avenue for expansion of his Desert Produce company business.

At the meeting of the planning commission last week, Mr. Beck outlined his plans for expansion of his warehouse and freezing room facilities.

Mr. Beck plans a complete line of provisions and sundries covering in a variety of 1200 items, most of them sorely needed by cafes, restaurants and resorts here. These will be available at the present address of the Desert Produce company at 192 North Indian avenue at the re-opening of business in the fall.

To co-operate with the places which will remain open all summer, service will continue as usual throughout the summer months, Mr. Beck said.

Letters to the Editor

ON INFLATION

Editor, The Sun:

Your article last week on "Inflation" hits the flat end of the nail squarely. It could not have been simpler or more precisely put.

Between capital and labor and uncourteous politics, it looks as if there's ruin ahead for the middle class, the last and only bulwark us and the loss of our present social and economic system.

Charles Doyle.

THE TRAFFIC SITUATION

Editor, The Sun:

It seems to me they are going after this traffic situation from the wrong end, too. Sure, cars and tires are old and all that—but the place to stop this terrific traffic slaughter is behind the steering wheel.

Lots of people don't mind paying a fine now and then and going right out to repeat the offense.

Seems to me fines aren't enough for the careless and selfish drivers. I don't like to think of anyone languishing in jail so, how about jailing the cars? Impound the auto of a guy who wilfully, carelessly or hogishly violates safety regulations and imperils the lives of others?

That would not only make the offender think deeply, but would remove some danger from the highways.

Owned by Levison

The El Dorado Hotel, 278 S. Palm Canyon Drive, came under the management of a new owner this past week. The new manager of the establishment is A. E. Levinson, who purchased the hotel from W. E. Dunn. Consideration involved in the transaction is reported to have been $200,000, and Mrs. Gwendolyn Lanan, associate of Muriel E. Fulton, local realtor, acted as intermediary for both the seller and purchaser.

Dunn and his wife, Marion, intend to make their home in Palm Springs following a summer vacation. Levinson is the owner of a company called "The House of Tomorrow."

ELECT WILL ROGERS, JR.
YOUR UNITED STATES SENATOR
HERE'S WHY . . .

1. Will Rogers, Jr., is the son of an illustrious father. He, too, is tremendously successful as a congressman, business man and statesman.
 2. He is a World War II veteran who enlisted as a private. He understands the financial, housing and hospitalization problems of the veteran—and fights for them!
 3. His unbiased, sound judgment on domestic and foreign affairs appeals to members of both major political parties. However, Rogers is a Democrat and has remained true to the Democratic party. No other candidate for Senator can make that claim.

From Head to Toe

By BARBARA K. SCHILLY

American designers once more have been rivaling from their dormant competitor, Paris . . . for Paris . . . now that it is released from the bonds of war . . . is speeding full force ahead and is offering ideas . . . startlingly different from what American fashionists have produced . . . and is becoming successful again. Women all over the world are again looking to that magic city of France for something new and different to offer . . . which it is amply doing.

Femininity is emphasized in Parisian styles . . . just as it is in American fashion . . . and both have the same incentive. Men are weary of rigid militarism and want to see something the complete opposite. However, where American designers generally have dwelled upon the sweet and pretty theme . . . Parisian stylists have gone completely basic and although they dress their women frilly and pretty, also . . . they have not failed to give their women an enticing and exciting appearance.

For example . . . those amazing new decollete daytime dresses . . . cut very low at the neck . . . sometimes slit to the waist

. . . and shirt-maker dresses that forget to button up the front.

Then, in Paris today . . . fit is all important . . . and fit their clothes do. Through the waist . . . through the ribs . . . and sometimes completely over the hips. Fit . . . as close as a sailor boy's pants . . . plays a great part in Paris' modes.

Bust lines are emphasized . . . waist lines are emphasized . . . everything feminine is emphasized . . . which is the story in America also . . . but in Paris . . . it seems to be more so.

Then there is the case of the strapless dress. America is taking to it . . . whereas Paris has gone overboard for it. Almost all evening gowns are strapless . . . and afternoon dresses are now being introduced in strapless styles. Alluring of course . . . and that is how Paris prefers its women.

With Paris coming into the spotlight once more . . . American stylists are not going to receive quite as much attention as they did during the war . . . but there is the difference. America is now on a par with Paris . . . no longer envious . . . just interested.

Merry Party Held to Mark Rosins' 9th Anniversary

It was only May 16—but, Oh, what it seemed to be!

In the middle of May they were playing Hallowe'en tricks at the El Encanto last Thursday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rosin celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary with a merry party around their new pool.

Fishing for apples was the main game but there were plenty of others.

Enjoying the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Rosin and wishing them many more happy anniversaries were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Charleston, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Satlitz, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reich, Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldberg, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hills, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. J. Herman, Mrs. E. Reinboth.

It is the 11th year that Mr.

MIXED SEASONS—It was only May but Hallowe'en was the theme when guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rosin gathered at the El Encanto pool to fish for apples as the Rosins celebrated their ninth anniversary. It was a gay party and enjoyed by all. (Gayle Studio photo.)

Rosin has been in the Village with his El Encanto and Tahquitz Vista apartments. He plans to close for the summer on June 2, and go to Catalina Island, where he owns the Hermosa hotel and cottages. In this first season at Catalina since the war, he looks forward to one of the busiest in the island's history.

Do Your Marketing on Wednesday!

All food stores and several other business establishments will be closed throughout the day on Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30, it was announced today by Joseph Butler, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce retail merchants committee.

Palm Springs housewives were urged by Mr. Butler to remember the closing arrangements and make adequate food purchases on Wednesday.

The city government offices, Bank of America and several quasi-public establishments also will be closed in observance of the day.

Jerome A. Tracy Back in Civvies Again This Week

Jerome A. (Jerry) Tracy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Tracy of Palm Springs, this week was discharged from the U. S. Navy at the Terminal Island separation center, according to word from Capt. E. W. Irish, commanding officer of the post.

He enlisted in the navy on May 14, 1944, at Los Angeles. He saw sea duty on the U.S.S. Bland and the U.S.S. Herald in Pacific waters and base duty at Roosevelt base, San Pedro. He is entitled to wear the Asiatic Pacific, American area, Victory Medal, Philippine Liberation, and American Defense medals.

Jerry Tracy saw 18 months of duty overseas and now that he is back in civilian clothes, he plans to attend medical school.

Twenty Million Horseshoes

SOMETHING FROM NOTHING!
Whether it's in attic, scrap bag or junk yard, there are always possibilities of a bright future for many a thing thrown into discard!

PAGING CINDERELLA! . . . Member those camp stools whose covers gave way on the last trip out? Turn them into luggage racks for the guest room by stripping them of the canvas seats. Varnish, stain or paint the wood. For each, make three two-inch wide strips of chintz or other material harmonizing with the room, doubled, and neatly seamed. Firmly tack them across the frames, one in the middle, one near each end. A good idea to bring into the living room—as a tray holder. The strips may be of needle point, cross stitch or some of the room's upholstery or drapery material. Quite easily it may become a permanent coffee table!

ORANGE CRATE MAGIC! . . . There's an orange crate on the kindling pile, isn't there? May-be two. And you could use bed-side tables. Line them with oilcloth of the desired color, cut, fitted and pasted in place. You'll need a yard of 46-inch oilcloth for lining each crate. Make gathered skirt pieces of chintz, cretonne or a gay print, and tack to the top of the sides and back (it doesn't have to go clear around). Then make a top cover with a 5-inch all-around frill to thumb-tack or baste into place. The shelves can hold books, magazines, bed-side radio, water jug. Imagine them red oilcloth-lined, with red and white checked cotton material, and crisp frills of white muslin, organdy or eyelet embroidery. It will take 2 to 3 yards of the checked material, depending upon width, and 1/2 yard material for ruffles for each table.

By connecting the two covered crates with a piece of heavy glass or a long board, covered and be-ruffled, this something-out-of-nothing trick becomes a dressing table stool! Using a butter tub, nail lid to bottom. Make cushion of cotton batting, stitched to fit. Dress in ruffy skirt with big ribbon sash.

FLASH
IF IT'S UP TO MAMMA TO MAKE MINOR REPAIRS about the house, fit up a breadboard with a household carpentry kit—hammer, screw driver, pliers, wrench—and hang it by screw eyes on a kitchen or entry wall. Painting tool handles and edge of board makes it quite attractive.

Be Helpful

Any Old Clothes?
The Needy Need Them!

HAVE YOU ANY OLD CLOTHING TO GIVE AWAY? If so, please bring clean and wearable articles of any description to the Public Health Center, 459 East Amado Road, for distribution to needy families.

Each year the Welfare and Friendly Aid section of the Palm Springs Woman's Club sends out this appeal, and each year the community has responded generously. Under the direction of Mrs. George B. Davies, hundreds of garments are sorted, checked, and distributed to local families according to need. It is hoped that the response this year will be as enthusiastic as in former years.

So, please, housewives—look through your clothes closets with a critical eye. Does last year's suit fit this year's figure? Why donate that gray polo coat to the moths when someone could wear and enjoy it? Now is the time for some stealthy sleight-of-hand in the matter of that sports jacket your husband clings to past all reason.

Salve your conscience and solve your summer storage problems by bringing all such articles to the Public Health Center immediately. For further information call: Mrs. Davies, 3024, or Mrs. Holderman, 2195.

Masons Will Meet Next Tuesday Noon

Meeting of the Masonic Luncheon Club will take place at the Del Tahquitz Hotel next Tuesday. Members desiring to attend are asked to get in touch with John Archibald of the Palm Springs Drug and Import Co.

Tomorrow to Be Poppy Day in Palm Springs

Preparations for Observance of Poppy Day in Village Completed by Members of American Legion Auxiliary

Tomorrow will be Poppy Day in Palm Springs and in thousands of other cities and towns throughout the United States.

Millions of Americans will pay tribute to the nation's war dead by wearing memorial poppies. Millions will make contributions to aid war's living victims, and disabled veterans, and families of the dead and disabled.

Preparations for the observance of Poppy Day here have been completed under the leadership of Mrs. Jay Morrison, Poppy Chairman of Owen Coffman Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary and high school girls will be on the streets early tomorrow morning with baskets of the red crepe paper poppies. They will continue to distribute the little red flowers throughout the day, endeavoring to give everyone in the Village an opportunity to wear a poppy in memory of those who gave their lives for America.

No price will be asked for the poppies, but contributions will be solicited for the welfare and rehabilitation funds of the Auxiliary. All money received will be used for the benefit of disabled veterans and families of veterans.

In conjunction with Poppy Day here, two poems were submitted to the Auxiliary this week by members, both on Poppy Day. They follow:

MEMORIAL POPPIES
By Amy W. Henderson

Do you see these bright red Poppies,
Over loyal hearts today
Do you ever stop to wonder
At the message they convey?
Do you ever pause to figure
That a boy who couldn't see—
Might have made that bright red
Poppy
Which you wear so thoughtlessly?
Did you ever say reluctantly, "I ought to do my bit?"
Did you ever ask yourself, my friend, how hard the boy was hit
Who sat, perhaps with broken hands,
With broken legs and heart—
Who made that bright red Poppy
So he still could be a part
Of the world that would forget him, lest he had his share to do,
Let's not forget these boys of ours, they gave, why shouldn't you?
And each bright Poppy that we buy
Let's buy it with a will.
He might have been your own,
you know,
Your Johnnie, Tom or Bill.
Each little bit we give to them,
they gave eternally
That you and I might walk and run, and live and breathe and see!
(Mrs. Henderson is a member of Owen Coffman Unit, American Legion Auxiliary.)

TO KEEP PROMISE
By Mabel E. Bryant

In Flanders' Fields these poppies grew,
Now I give them one by one, to
you.
A symbol of our boys, so brave,
A message, pleading the unfortunate to save.

To keep our promise true,
Pledged by me, and all of you,
That by a little giving
We will help the living,
Heroes, one and all.

(Mrs. Bryant is a Gold Star
Mother of Palm Springs and Cathedral City. Her son, Leonard B.
Bryant, died December 18, 1944,
when the Destroyer, Monaghan, on which he was stationed, went down in a typhoon in the China Sea, off the coast of Luzon. He attended Palm Springs High School before entering the service.)

World Peace
Plans Discussed
Before Villagers

Just back from a Federalist
Congress at the University of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Peter
Charlton spoke before the Palm Springs Group for World Peace
last Saturday.

Mr. Charlton, an executive of Dean Witter & Co. in Los Angeles, showed a movie stressing the importance of world government, and discussed interviews he had had with many of the atomic scientists at the University of Chicago and in New York recently.

The attendance at this meeting showed no decline, in spite of the late season, from the highs set during the winter months. The Group entertained Mr. and Mrs.
Charlton at dinner and breakfast at La Cita.

Fulton To Open
Mountain Store

Fred Fulton, owner-manager of Fulton's Men's Wear here, has announced the opening of an all-year-around store at Big Bear Lake to take place June 1. He plans to duplicate the type of service he has given to Palm Springs but in no way will abandon his establishment here in Palm Springs.

In addition to sports wear, western garb, Fulton also intends to stock a full supply to please the heart of ski fans.

This department will be added to the local store as well, once the San Jacinto Tramway is in operation.

Army Air Field
Here Now Under
Long Beach Rule

Effective May 21, the local Army Air Base came under the direct supervision of the 6th Ferrying Group at Long Beach and its designation was changed from the 360th Army Air Base
Unit to Operating Location number 556-18-LL. From that date on, all personnel, both military and civilian, came under the command of the base unit in Long Beach.

At present there are 21 officers and 28 enlisted men stationed at the air field. As of Tuesday 163 civilian employees were employed there. All of the personnel are in the process of being reduced so that on July 21 only a small number of people will be at work there. From July 21 until the field and its equipment is declared surplus only a small number of engineering personnel will remain.

The fluttery summer visitor approached the old sea captain smilingly.

She: You know, I've always wondered—why you sea folks always call a boat a she.
Captain: Ever try to steer one?

AROUND TSAY-KIZZY MESA WITH CHICO—PART I

I had just seated myself at my regular table in the Goulding mess-hall, eager for breakfast, when a blonde young man, sleep still heavy in his blue eyes, sat down opposite me. I knew all the other regular "customers" at this table, so I just assumed that the stranger must be a new 20th Century-Fox employee newly arrived to work on the "My Darling Clementine" movie set being built in the middle of Monument Valley. After a few moments of exchanging sugar and milk, we fell into conversation. To my amazement, when I casually mentioned that I was with Jack Breed in his Expedition in Exposure, he replied: "Then you must be Lloyd Smith." How did this total stranger know me by name?

As it turned out, this chap, John Chatowski by name, "Chico" for short, was discharged from the Naval Air Corps in December. He had saved a little money during his tour of duty and bought himself a small panel delivery truck in which he installed a bed and even a bureau and which he named "Die Blaue Blume" (after the old German romanticists' symbol). In January he had left his home in Gardner, Mass., bound to spend the rest of the year until September (when he returns to college) just travelling about, seeing the country. He had already been south to Florida and to Mexico City. At Big Bend National Park in Texas he chanced to meet Jack, and Jack outlined a suggested route for him to follow on to the West. Naturally he included Monument Valley on that itinerary. That was why Chico had come here, and also how he knew about me. He plans to go on west to California, then up the Pacific Coast clear to Alaska, returning across Canada.

TO EXPLORE MESA

Since Jack had gone to Cortez, New Mexico, on business, I had planned to spend that day exploring the huge mesa directly behind the Goulding trading post, which the Navaho refer to as Tsay-kizzy, meaning broken or shattered rock. When I outlined my plans to Chico, he was keen to accompany me, since he had only just arrived in the Valley last night, and had been stuck the previous night in the treacherous mud of Marsh Pass below Kayenta. The same night he became mired, he was not alone; there were seven studio trucks and three other passenger cars that had to remain until late the next morning for the mud to dry out sufficiently to permit their passage.

DUSTY GOES ALONG

We had two lunches put up, and after I secured my camera and extra film, we started off across the ravines, deciding to encircle the mesa toward the south. We had gone but a few hundred yards when we heard a noisy scrambling of paws and turned to see "Dusty", the Gould-ing cocker spaniel, eagerly bounding toward us. Knowing how he liked to hunt for lizards and explore among the rocks, we decided to let him accompany us.

There is no regular trail to the south from the Post. We could have followed the main dirt road out toward the center of the valley and then detoured off it to the lower end of the mesa, but this would have necessitated a couple of extra miles of walking, and neither of us felt in that good a physical condition to take on any longer distance than was necessary. So, instead, we skirted the very base of the mesa, picking our irregular way among the tumbled sandstone boulders and across the innumerable little canyons dissected by rainwater. The vertical and often slightly overhanging orange-red cliffs towered above us nearly a thousand feet. To the northeast spread the valley, flat and vast almost beyond conception, and in the far distance were the silhouettes of the mountains, jutting up against the horizon like ever watchful guardians.

FIND INDIAN HOGAN

The yapping of a mongrel dog somewhere near us attracted our attention, and after much scanning, we finally located the source: a well concealed mud-covered Navaho hogan, located in a slight depression between two small ridges. The dog was of a mixed breed, as most of the Indian canines are, and resembled most a half-grown Eskimo husky, black and white in color. It had detected us even though we were at least half a mile away, and was barking intermittently in our general direction. Another few moments and he lost all interest, retiring to the meagre shade of a nearby juniper and sprawling flat in the thick dust. About a hundred feet from the hogan was a framework of poles, about eight feet high and as wide. Across this framework was a veritable web of heavy cordage. It was a typical Navaho loom, and with the field glasses we could see a half-completed rug at its base. The design was the beautiful corn or maize pattern, executed in white and yellow. Where the Indians themselves were, we could not ascertain. In all probability the women and children were inside the hogan and the men working on the movie set.

GO TO SUMMIT

We moved on our way, seeking a place in the escarpment where we could climb up onto the lower portion of the mesa. Dusty ran on ahead, pausing every few feet to glance back at us to make sure we didn't change our direction. At last, about two miles from our starting point, we found just such a break in the formation, where the cap-rock had toppled down against the base of the cliff to form a small local talus slope. Working our way up this steep incline we were able to gain the summit, about two hundred feet higher than we were before.

The cliffs still towered above us on both sides, and we found that now we were in a narrow little valley. On our left opposite the mesa itself, were other cliffs, not as high as those to the right but equally forbidding. It was a valley much carved by the wind and rain. A few scattered junipers and clumps of ephedra and blackbrush formed the only vegetative cover. The floor was a jumbled mass of rocks and crevasses, interspersed with small hillocks of brick-colored sand.

Deciding to first explore the lower area to our left, we hiked across to the base of that battlement of rock. Natural caves and holes were everywhere. Dusty flushed a lone antelope ground squirrel and it darted to safety under an adjacent boulder, leaving the spaniel whining in disappointment. Far overhead we could hear the high-pitching squeaky voicings of circling violet-green swallows.

FIRST DISCOVERY

Our first "discovery" was that of a giant erosional form against the base of the cliff. In shape it resembled a giant plum, leaning upright against the sandstone walls and mounted on a narrow "stem" only a few feet thick. It was easily over a hundred feet high and some thirty feet across in the middle, tapering slightly at the top. We named it The Plum on the little sketch map I was compiling. Only a very few of the formations in the valley have names, so on my map I assigned provisional names merely for reference purposes.

Nearby we spotted something rather unique. About head-high on the side of a huge flat exposure of sandstone were two large perfectly round white circles, appearing almost as if they might have been painted there. Close examination revealed that the mineral material within the white sphere was of a softer constituency than the matrix rock. How it was formed we couldn't even fathom a guess. Chico suggested it might be where the Navaho sun god rested a moment while journeying through the area, and who can say his guess was wrong? Oddly enough, later on, about a mile beyond, we found another such white circle. Evidently their formation is not too uncommon. This second one was only about six inches across, whereas the first was over a foot in diameter.

FIND HUGE ARCH

We recrossed the narrow valley and continued along the base of the Tsay-kizzy mesa proper. Our next "find" was a gigantic natural concave arched area carved out of the sandstone cliffs, over five hundred feet above the floor. It looked for all the world like the Royal Arches of Yosemite, so we christened it that. Chico discovered that if he stood directly beneath this concavity and shouted out into the canyon, he could get five distinct

Father of Village Woman, Prominent Musician, Succumbs

Mrs. A. B. Conkwright, wife of "Conky" Conkwright, the Hill-Billy of Radio KCMJ, returned to the Village this week after a sad mission to Los Angeles, to attend the funeral of her father, W. B. Strong, well known musician.

Mr. Strong, famous in the musical world as a player and writer, succumbed at the age of 84, at the home of Vladimir Drucker, his son-in-law, and also a musician of note, who has appeared many times in the Hollywood Bowl. He had been making his home with the Druckers for the past few months.

Mrs. Conkwright is known to the musical world as Vivian Hart and formerly starred in many Gilbert and Sullivan operas. She brought with her to the Village on her return, her mother, Mrs. Kuria Strong.

The Strongs were well known in northwestern musical circles when they made their home in Seattle, Washington.

echoes in return, each about a second apart. The next five minutes he amused himself by calling all manner of epithets at himself and then sitting back and smugly listening to the same words coming back at him in crystal-clear syllables. Later in the week he was to be even more astonished at Echo Cave, where he can, under favorable circumstances, get up to 16 echoes from a single shout!

A huge sand dune farther down the canyon attracted our attention next, and we walked across to investigate it.

Fish and Game Group Will Stage Fish Fry Tomorrow

The Palm Springs Fish and Game Conservation association will hold its second annual fish fry and get-together at the John Kline residence located on the O'Donnell golf course at the west end of Alejo Road, at 7:30 o'clock, tomorrow evening. Members and their families are cordially invited. Tickets will be on sale at the gate. The tempting menu of trout, green corn, coffee, et cetera, will be prepared under the expert supervision of Tony and Ellen Biavaschi. There will be entertainment following the fish fry.

Although the association was formed only a little over a year ago much has been accomplished in the interests of sportsmen. Two loads of trout, ranging from 8 to 13 inches, have been placed in nearby streams this year. Through the combined efforts of the association clubs in Riverside and San Bernardino counties, the U. S. Forest Service has promised to raise the fire closure on additional deer country this coming fall. Harold N. Lienau has been appointed on a committee consisting of sportsmen from all Southern California to help draft a Fish and Game Bill to be presented to the State Legislature this coming session. It is hoped that through the passage of this bill more fish hatcheries and game farms will be established by the state from which more fish and game birds will be released in fishing and hunting areas.

It is urged that all sportsmen become affiliated with this organization, as it is only through strength of membership that beneficial legislation may be obtained.

Dr. Macartney Plans Summer Of Recreation

Dr. and Mrs. John Robertson Macartney of Community church plan to go to their home in Forest Home, Mill Creek canyon, soon for the summer but will be down each Sunday for morning services at the church in June.

Later in the summer they plan to go to their familiar resort on Cross Island in Puget Sound where Dr. Macartney plans to go fishing and gain material for some tall fish stories to be told on his return.

He will occupy his former pulpit at Bellingham, Wash., on July 14 and 21.

Nellie Coffman Class Attends Annual Sermon

Community church was filled to capacity last Sunday morning when the annual Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by Dr. John R. Macartney.

Music for the event was provided by the Chapel choir of the church.

George Mannington, principal of Nellie N. Coffman Junior high, was in charge of arrangements for the event.

Trailer Resident Faces Morals Case

Edward Hassett, 60, resident of a local trailer camp, was arrested Sunday night by Officers Jack Brooks and Jim Maynard on a morals charge involving two little girls. His bail was fixed at $5,000.

His preliminary hearing was set for today before Judge E. E. Thereau.

Three From Village Pass State Tests

At the May 23 examinations conducted by the California State Board of Architectural Examiners three residents of Palm Springs were among the 65 successful applicants for certificates in the state.

They were Harry J. Williams, well known local architect, whose certificate was a renewal and Anton I. Morrell and Harold B. Zook, new certificates.

"Well, of course, I wouldn't say anything about her unless I could say something good — and oh, boy, is this good!"

HONOR ROLL

Their names are engraved deep in the hearts of families and friends—names like yours and your neighbor's—names from all "sides of the tracks"—names that bring to mind every nation around the globe. They are the heroes who died in battle during World War II, achieving that great Victory in Europe whose anniversary we observe this day. It is for us the living to remember, along with their names, that for which they died... a way of life rich because of its four freedoms—from fear and want, of speech and worship.

Portrait of the Week By BERNARD of Hollywood

Alice Weil . . . that very charming girl with that very charming accent, is this week's selection. A Viennese . . . Alice came to this country 5½ years ago . . . and had her greatest thrill when she became a U. S. citizen two months ago. She has seen quite a bit of Europe, including Italy . . . France, etc., and she lived in England a year where she tried to master the language . . . did very well . . . except she had hoped to lose her accent . . . which we find delightful. Alice came to Palm Springs last season and was secretary to Charles Farrell at the Racquet Club. On the subject of men . . . Alice claims she would like to find one who is nice looking . . . dependable . . . friendly . . . and a good dancer . . . which just proves that Viennese girls have exactly the same ideas as gals all over the world.

Republicans Plan
Active Campaign
in Village Area

The Palm Springs District Republican committee reorganized this week for the forthcoming June 4 primary and the fall elections with Arthur E. Bailey, chairman, Mrs. Melba Bennett and Ted Griffith, vice-chairmen, Herbert Samson, treasurer and Gretchen Wright, secretary.

Complete organization of the committee and appointment of precinct captains and sub-committees will be made at a meeting scheduled for May 30, at the Frances S. Stevens school auditorium.

Members of the committee are Florian Boyd, Joe Butler, Earl Coffman, John Chaffey, Laurence Crossley, Francis F. Crocker, Raymond Cree, Frank W. Cutler, William Dean, Muriel Fulton, Gordon Fekings, R. F. Graettinger, W. R. Hillery, Tom Kieley, Karl Kumpe, William A. Lippman, Mrs. Edith Lykken, Fred Markham, Mrs. Evelyn Purcell, Mrs. Hildegard Penderly, Mrs. Henrietta Parker, Lloyd Simon, and Judge E. E. Theriault.

Plans for an active campaign here both for the June 4 primaries and the November general elections are being drawn.

Volunteers who wish to work with the committee are urged to contact either Mr. Bailey, chairman, or Mrs. Bennett, vice-chairman.

First objective of the committee was to see that all leaving their precincts obtain absentee ballots. These must be obtained before May 29, by writing G. A. Pequegnat, county clerk, at the county court house in Riverside.

Dr. Potter Talks

Dr. James W. Potter, commander of Post 66, local DAV post, was on the air yesterday over KCMJ.

On Conky Conkwright's Hill-Billy program, he outlined what the local post is endeavoring to do for disabled veterans of World War II.

Jules and Webb
At Rendezvous
At Hotel Indio

Jules and Webb, noted Village entertainers, have their local engagements but before going to the coast for the summer, have taken a three-night swing at the Rendezvous in the Indio hotel out of friendship for the manager there, Marshall Wright.

They were heard last night and will be on again there tonight and tomorrow night.

They plan to be back in Palm Springs again in the fall.

John Klug Host
To Seniors at Merry Affair

Among the many gay parties which featured commencement time at Palm Springs high school was that given by John Klug of the senior class last week-end. It started out with a dinner party at the La Cita and wound up with games and swimming at the pool at Burkey court.

Present for the delightful evening were John Wilson, Gillar Boyd, Joe Brummitt, Bill Carey, Bob Hoover, Bill Oakman, the host, John Klug, the Misses Barbara Emigh, Clara Jane Lyter, DeLorse Roth, Vivian Gaudiello, Julie Martineau, Joanne Hookey and Carol Burket.

The soldier gazed admiringly at the beautiful dress of the leading chorine.

"Who made her dress?" he asked his companion.

"I'm not sure, but I think it was the police."

Arrangements have been made through the public relations office at March Field for the appearance of Major Ray Wetmore, a veteran of 142 combat missions and 563 combat hours in the European Theatre of Operations, as speaker at the meeting of the Palm Springs Chapter of the Aeronautical Association Tuesday at the Green Shack. Arrangements were made by Charles Clark and James Higbee of Banning, members of the chapter.

Twenty-three-year-old Major Wetmore is credited with 24 aerial victories, including one rocket ship, and with three planes destroyed on the ground. He is at present assigned to March Field with the 412th Fighter Group, the only P-80 jet-equipped tactical group in the United States.

ACE OF THE ETO

Major Wetmore, ace of the European theatre of Operations is at present assigned at March Field as Group Gunnery and Armament Officer of the 412th Fighter Group, the only P-80 jet-equipped group in the United States.

A veteran of 142 combat missions and 563 combat hours, the twenty-three-year-old major is credited with 24 aerial victories, including one rocket ship, and with three planes destroyed on the ground.

His coolness under fire and extraordinary devotion to duty in the face of great odds is well demonstrated by one action in which he and 1st Lieutenant Robert M. York, while separated from the rest of the fighter squadron, attacked 200 Nazi fighter planes, downing seven and outmaneuvering the rest when their ammunition exhausted. As a result of his many missions and outstanding combat record, Major Wetmore has received an unusual number of decorations. Among these is the Distinguished Service Cross, second highest decoration of the land, which was personally presented by General Carl A. Spaatz, present Commanding General of the AAF. He later received an Oak Leaf Cluster to the DSC which is given in lieu of a second award of the medal. In addition he holds the Silver Star with cluster, the Distinguished Flying Cross with five clusters, the Air Medal with 12 clusters, and the French Croix de Guerre. He was shot down while supporting an attack at Remagen Bridge, but escaped injury.

A native to Kerman, California, he graduated from Kerman High School in time to enlist in the Army in 1940. A flying enthusiast in civilian life with 180 hours to his credit, he entered flying school at Kelly Field, Texas, and after training there and at other fields, graduated from Moore Field in March, 1943. Overseas assignment with the 8th Air Force followed. His exceptionally keen eyesight and skill as a pilot made his survival possible in spite of the constant danger to which he was exposed.

He is married and the father of a small daughter, Diane, for whom his combat planes were affectionately named, "Daddy's Girl".

Pola Fillmore, Noted Decorator, At Local Store

Pola Fillmore, well known interior decorator of Los Angeles, San Francisco and the west coast, is now associated with the Palm Springs Furniture company, 343 North Indian avenue, Saul Margulies, proprietor, said today.

Miss Fillmore has many houses in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills and San Francisco to her credit. Lately she has been confining herself to large construction projects, hotels, apartment houses and office buildings.

Recently, however, she decided to go back to decorating homes and will devote herself to that field while in Palm Springs.

Radio and Record
Player Not Misplaced

P. H. Van Pelt, of Oakdale, Calif., made a find the other day. As he came out of the local hotel where he had been spending his vacation with Mrs. Van Pelt, he found a radio and a record player on the back seat of his automobile.

"Hm, somebody got the wrong car," he mused and forthwith drove off to the police station to report the incident and leave the articles. He figured that the rightful owner would report the loss to the police and recover the items.

Ten minutes later he was back at the police station.

He apologized for taking up so much of their valuable time but explained:

"You see, my wife told a friend of ours that we were driving to Los Angeles and the friend wanted us to take in her radio and record player. So my wife put them in the back seat of our car. 'Could I please get them back to take to Los Angeles?' He could—and he did."

Going Away? Have You Told Police About Your Plans?

Going away for the summer? Have you told the police about it?

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann this week reiterated his invitation to winter residents, who are closing their homes for the summer, to let the department know about it.

Forms are available at the police department where the summer address of the person making the report is listed, his telephone number, the name of the caretaker and other information valuable in protecting the property.

Police will make a regular check of the closed premises and inform either the owner or the caretaker the minute anything seems out of the way.

So far, 50 winter residents have taken advantage of the offer for protection and all are urged to do so by Chief Kettmann. The service is free and is extended as a courtesy by the Village and the police department.

MARRIED—Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sill (she is the former Ruth Smith of Pasadena and the Village) who were married recently at Community church. (Bernard of Hollywood photo.)

Miss Ruth Smith Becomes Bride of Robert F. Sill

Miss Ruth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Smith, of Palm Springs, became the bride of Robert F. Sill of Peoria, Ill., at ceremonies read at the Community church by Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor, recently.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Perkins, and maids were Colleta Blake, Alice Hardwick and Betty Brown. All were in white but carried colorful flowers.

Corporal Gilbert W. Smith Jr., the bride's brother, served as best man and the ushers were Charles Perkins, Robert Bright and Donald Dick.

The bride was attired in white, lace bodice, sweetheart neck and a skirt of sheer tulle. She carried white orchids and a prayer book.

The bridegroom was a lieutenant in the army for five years, two and a half of which were served overseas. He attended school and college in Illinois. The bride attended Flintridge school for girls and the University of Southern California. She was president of the Chi Omega sorority.

A reception at the Tennis club followed the wedding. They will honeymoon in Illinois and will visit with his family while there.

Driver Pays $75
On DWI Charges

Nestor T. Mediano, resident of the reservation, was fined $75 by Judge E. E. Theriau following his arrest on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested by Policeman Jacob Brooks in the 100 block on Indian avenue. His arrest followed report to the police station of a driver obviously intoxicated, traversing Indian avenue.

Four Charges Face Cook as Result of Lounge Altercation

David McFarlane, 40, a cook living on the reservation, is scheduled to appear before Judge E. E. Theriau in a local court today to face a variety of charges, all growing out of a fracas in a local lounge Saturday night.

McFarlane, so the notation on the police blotter sets forth, became unruly at the lounge and was escorted out.

He didn't stay out, however, so the charge states, but came back. Then he allegedly attacked Rollin C. Cornell, who had refused to serve him. Cornell called police and Police Sergeant Orest Johnson and Patrolmen Jim Maynard and Bob Phillips responded.

But McFarlane, according to police, did not relish the idea of being arrested and fought the police. In the melee, it is charged, Sgt. Johnson was kicked in the eye. He was treated at Palm Springs Community hospital where two stitches were required to close the wound.

Taken before Judge Theriau, McFarlane entered a plea of not guilty to charges of disturbing the peace, resisting an officer, intoxication and on a separate charge of battery, sworn to by Cornell.

Captain Maxwell
in Town to Boost
Kuchel Candidacy

Bob Maxwell, known to countless Villagers as Captain Robert Maxwell because that was how he was known during his tenure of office as public relations officer at the local army air base, was in town this week. He left Palm Springs a single man but came back a benedict. He and Mrs. Charlotte Pando, whom he met while at the air base here, were recently married in Yuma.

He was in civvies, having been discharged by the army.

PLUG KUCHEL

And he was "burned up," too. The former captain in the army, star hurdler and member of a U.S. Olympic games team, and former newspaper man, was in town with Henry French of Riverside, state inheritance tax appraiser. They were plugging the candidacy for election of Thomas H. Kuchel (pronounced Keckel) at present state controller.

The reason he was "burned up" was because one of Kuchel's opponents at the June 4 primary is Harry "E" Riley, electrical appliance salesman.

For eight years Harry B. Riley was state controller and did a most efficient job until his death. Kuchel succeeded him. It is claimed that smart politicians, seeking the control of the state controller's office, persuaded Harry "E" Riley, no relation, to run, figuring that voters, who did not know, or who had forgotten, the death of Harry B. Riley, would think them the same person and cast their vote accordingly.

"No law is being violated by Harry E. Riley," said the former captain, "but ethics of the situation are another matter!"

NOT THE SAME

"We just want to make it plain that Tom Kuchel is the state controller and Harry "E" Riley is not the Harry B. Riley who handled the job so efficiently before death overtook him," said Maxwell.

"Because of the situation, the case has been getting much publicity in newspapers up and down the state and is giving the public a little better insight on 'inside politics,'" the former air flight officer said.

Grant Wood Back
on Sun Staff as Advertising Chief

Grant Wood, identified with the newspaper business in the Village for more than 16 years, this week returned to the first paper for which he worked in Palm Springs — The Desert Sun. He became advertising manager for the Sun Tuesday.

Mr. Wood was the first advertising manager for the Sun awayback in 1931. He later published the Palm Springs News and also brought out the first issue of the Palm Springs Life.

In July, 1942, he went into the service and served three and one-half years as a first lieutenant in the air corps.

His mother, Mrs. Ernestine Wood, is also a well known resident of this area. Mr. Wood was married recently, details of which may be found on another page in this issue.

Mr. Wood succeeds Bob Gane, member of the staff for many months, who resigned his position last week to take a long rest.

Junior High Grads,
Instructors, Guests
of Mrs. Coffman

Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman, whose term of activity and interest in the Village elementary school system covers a span of 23 years, 19 of which she was a member of the school board, was host last Friday evening to members of the graduating class of the junior high school which bears her name — the Nellie N. Coffman Junior high school — and instructors at a merry party at the Desert Inn.

More than 150 guests gathered around the gayly decorated dinner tables set up on the tennis court at the Inn as students, instructors and friends partook of Mrs. Coffman's hospitality.

Following the dinner hour, there was dancing on the tennis court and special entertainment for the guests.

Mrs. Coffman first became a member of the Desert School District board in 1923, and served until 1929. For four years, while she was abroad she was not on the board. She was elected again in 1934, and served until this year, when she declined to seek re-election, declaring that it was time someone else took up the task.

The evening was a gay one and thoroughly enjoyed by all of Mrs. Coffman's young guests and their teachers.

Young Bride: Now, dearie, what will I get if I cook a dinner like that for you every day this year?

Young Groom: My life insurance.

Bill Ortwin Plans
Summer Period in
WAL Vacationland

William H. B. (Bill) Ortwin, city traffic manager for Western Air Lines, is leaving Palm Springs this week — "but I'll be back."

WAL is opening two new runs into vacationland, West Yellowstone, in Idaho, and Jackson Hole county, in Wyoming. Ortwin expects to be assigned to one of these spots.

He said Monday that the city office at Palm Canyon drive and Tahquitz drive will be closed this week for the summer months but that reservation tickets and travel information would be available at the field office, telephone 2238, from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

TO RE-OPEN OCT. 1

The city office will re-open on October 1, in larger quarters at the same site, the E. F. Hutton company offices moving one door north to provide added room for the WAL.

"And, by the way," he added, "Do you know that within one hour and 20 minutes after getting away from the summer desert heat, you can be cooling off in the surf of the Pacific?"

Explaining this, he said, a plane leaves here for Los Angeles via Long Beach at 12:23 p.m. It arrives at Long Beach at 1:13, 50 minutes later.

"If you can't get ready and dive into the Pacific in 30 minutes, it's your own fault," he said.

The 12:23 plane gets to Los Angeles at 1:39 p.m. The inbound plane leaves Los Angeles at 3 p.m. and gets here at 3:57 p.m.

With planes offering fast service to both Long Beach and San Diego from the Village, Ortwin said no one need to languish for the lack of a plunge into the surf.

Western Air Line Granted Permit for Mexico City Line

The Civil Aeronautics board this week at Washington, D. C., awarded Western Air Lines authority to establish an air service between Los Angeles and Mexico City with intermediate stops at San Diego and at La Paz, Lower California, according to word to Kenneth C. Radcliff, station manager of Western Air Lines here.

The authority granted by C. A. B. would permit a direct single carrier service from the Western United States and will mean local service between Palm Springs and Mexico City. The line will add approximately one thousand five hundred sixty miles to Western Air Lines, four thousand three hundred three miles of routes over the western United States.

Leo H. Dwerlkotte, executive vice-president of Western Air Lines, said that the decision of the board is recognition of the fast growing community of interest between the western United States and Mexico.

"Western Air Lines is proud that it has been chosen as the airline to furnish the direct service between the western United States and Mexico. Direct service will materially assist the good neighbor policy of these nations and further cement the relationship desired under this policy. With the cooperation of the Mexican government, Western Air will establish the new direct service as soon as possible. To this end Western Air will establish contacts with the government of Mexico immediately.

Western will be able to inaugurate the service with D C-4 Sky-master, forty-four passenger planes and when the ten DC-6 fifty-four passenger planes now on order are received, will establish three hundred mile an hour service, flying the 1,564 (one thousand five hundred sixty four miles) from Los Angeles in approximately seven hours, including the stops at San Diego and La Paz, Mr. Dwerlkotte said. Western Air Lines has proposed a fare of $79.20 (seventy nine dollars and twenty cents) for the flight from Los Angeles to the Mexican capital.

Food and Money Still Roll in for Starving

AID FOR EUROPE—School kids help Wild Bill Rashall of The Desert Sun pile up more canned goods for the starving peoples of the war-torn nations. The youngsters volunteered their services and soon had four times the goal they set for themselves. (Gayle Studio photo.)

Goal of 500 Cases of Food Nearing and Now Checks are Coming in to Aid in Concrete Drive to Aid World Needy

If you haven't donated a can of food to the Desert Sun's "Emergency Food Collection" for the hungry overseas you can still answer this humane appeal by putting a check in the mail, made out to Emergency Food Collection and mailed to either this paper, the Chamber of Commerce or the Post Office.

As a matter of fact, headquarters of this national drive in New York City now would like to see more money donated than canned foods. Reasons contained in letters stress the fact that more food can be bought per dollar from a central purchasing agency than the average person can obtain for the same sum at his favorite grocery.

FOOD PILING UP

Just the same, canned food for the hungry in war-torn countries still continues to mount at the three city depots. Cathedral City, catching the full force of the appeal of this newspaper for help in the campaign, has established a food depot at the postoffice in that community. Reports from Cathedral City indicated that food and checks are piling up rapidly.

In addition, high school students and grammar school pupils are continuing to solicit from house to house for food and money.

LOOK FOR CONTAINERS

The pressing job now is to get the food sorted and packed in five board cartons or wooden boxes. According to instructions from headquarters, vegetables, meats and fruits are to be packed in separate containers. The problem that presents itself now is in obtaining these containers of varying sizes in order to fit the multitude of different size cans. So don't throw that box away! It can be put to good use now.

Bring them to the former information offices at the Torney General hospital. The guard at the main gate of the hospital will open the door to this small building and allow you to leave the boxes there.

Volunteers to help sort and pack the food are also wanted. People who wish to donate an hour or so of their time are asked to call the Desert Sun for further information.

NEARING GOAL

Although great stress is now being placed on the contribution of money, donations of food are still wanted. The goal for Palm Springs in canned food is 500 cases of food, and of this amount about two-thirds has been accumulated. Once packed, the food will be shipped C.O.D. to a designated warehouse in Los Angeles.

More than $300 in checks and cash has already been donated and deposited in the Bank of America here until the drive is

War's Over

Desert Inn Pool
Closed This Summer

James C. Geggie, resident manager of The Desert Inn, said today that for the first time since the war emergency, the pool at the Inn will be closed this summer.

During the war years the Desert Inn kept its pool open during summer months for use by military personnel stationed at the air base and at Torney General hospital.

Now that this need is ended and most of the service men gone, the hotel pool will be closed, Mr. Geggie said.

The next issue of this newspaper will contain the names of all money contributors.

AS BIG AS DESERT

The contributions in cash have ranged from pennies collected at the grammar school to bank checks running as high as $100. Bartenders at the Lido on Palm Canyon Drive started a penny collection from among patrons. Several times during the day and evening, customers are asked to donate any pennies they may have on their person. Most of the coppers are coming from change obtained in the purchase of cigarettes.

Keep the money and cans coming in, Palm Springs! The campaign's goal here is rapidly being approached and the world will know that Palm Springs has as big a heart as the desert that surrounds it.

Atomic Age to be Subject of Radio Forum on May 28

On Tuesday, May 28, beginning at 6 p.m., radio station KCMJ and the Columbia network will broadcast a special hour long program for the purpose of conducting an inquiry into the method and cost of survival in the atomic age. The program is entitled "Operation Crossroad" and the facilities of the network will be thrown open to the American people to circulate as widely as possible the considered opinion of the world's foremost experts.

A cross section of the people—a gold star mother from Minneapolis, a handyman from Chicago, a machinist from Washington, a student from California, a farmer from Texas, an octogenarian from Maine—will present their attitudes and fears. And group of scientists, scholars and statesmen will establish the inadequacies of these attitudes and the necessity of arriving out of these fears, at a sound solution based on an understanding of the problem. This group includes such outstanding

Subject "Soul and Body"

"Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" This question from I Corinthians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.
The Lesson-Sermon includes these Bible selections from the Psalms: "O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee; my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary . . . My soul shall praise thee with joyful lips." And from I Corinthians, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? . . . therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit. Man is the expression of Soul."

Famous Mitchell's Boys' Choir Heard in Splendid Program at Catholic Church and on Air Over Radio KCMJ on Sunday

Our Lady of Solitude, Catholic church was packed to capacity last Sunday morning when Bob Mitchell's famed Boys' Choir made its initial appearance in Palm Springs.

Episcopal Church to Conclude for Season, June 2

St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, will be open for two more Sundays, the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, rector, said today. Services will be held May 26 and June 2.

Next Sunday the rector will preach a Memorial sermon on "God's Care for Our Dead." Both Sunday school and the Young People's Fellowship have been discontinued for the summer, to open again on Sept. 22.

Thursday, May 30, Memorial Day, is also Ascension Day in the Church calendar, the coincidence being due to the late date for Easter, upon which it depends.

Holy Communion will be celebrated that day at 8 a.m., the Rev. Hogarth said.

JOSEPH SEYMOUR

Candidate for Superior Court Judge

I have announced to the citizens of Riverside County through the columns of this paper, and other sources, that I am a candidate for Superior Court Judge. The primary election will be held June 4, 1946. I have previously told you of some of my qualifications. I will not repeat all of them, but however, I will again state that I have practiced law in the State of California, and in all the courts thereof, for over forty-two years and that I am now and have been for some years past United States Referee in Bankruptcy for Riverside County.

I believe in the principles of Democracy and the democratic way of life. My extended experience has not only been in the law but also with affairs of life, both of which, in my opinion, are necessary for a judge to have.

The election of a judge is a matter of the utmost importance to every citizen and every citizen should vote. Every citizen should think for himself. He should make his own investigation and cast his vote for the man that he personally believes is the best qualified to be a judge.

There is no substitute for seasoned experience in the practice of law and a mature knowledge of the problems of life.

I stand on my record.

I request that you read my next communication, which will appear in the next issue of this paper.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH SEYMOUR

A special mass was held at 9 a.m. and the choir under the direction of Bob Mitchell sang the ancient Gregorian mass specially arranged by the leader. During the Offertory the choir sang Ponis Angelicus.

GOES OUT OVER AIR

The entire mass was broadcast through the facilities of KCMJ, which included a sermon given by Father Francis L. McGann. Following the services the entire group, including the regular choir of the church, were guests of Mrs. Nellie Coffman for breakfast at the Village Inn. It was the first visit for many of the boys to Palm Springs and having heard about the swimming pools that are supposed to be in everyone's back yard, a few of the choir had brought swimming trunks along. However, there were some, including Bob Mitchell himself, who decided they, too, wanted to take a dip, but were without the proper attire.

A call to the home of Tom Holland, owner of the Palm Springs Department and Hardware Store, brought Mrs. Holland and one of her clerks downtown to open the store. Provided with additional swimming trunks, Mrs. Thelma Davis graciously invited the group to use the swimming pool at the Colonial House. One of the swanky apartments at that famous hotel was turned into a dressing room and in less time than it takes to write this, the boys were diving and splashing about in the pool.

WARM UP WATER

"This is the first time so many young boys have been in the pool at one time," smiled Bill Davis. "They're sure 'warming' up the water."

At the church, the musical program of so many young voices singing in the choir was a treat the majority of those in attendance will not soon forget. Their voices were soft and melodious. The organ playing by Bob Mitchell in accompaniment, was beautiful to hear. Radio engineers from KCMJ had arranged a two-point pick-up of the program. One point of the pick-up was in the choir loft and the other was on the altar where the voice of Father McGann was picked up. In this fashion the responses were easily heard. Throughout the singing of the Gregorian Mass the voice of Father McGann could be faintly heard in the background conducting the services, adding greatly to the sacred picture in the minds of radio listeners.

Many expressed the wish that the choir would again return to Palm Springs.

The Importance of Hay

Hay is a very important harvested forage and its value is great. Between 1928 and 1937 the American hay crop had an annual value greater than that of cotton or wheat or any crop except corn.

According to experts strip cropping has proved to be one of the simpler, most useful and effective, and most inexpensive method of controlling soil erosion.

Dawn Services to be Heard Sunday on CBS Recording

The great Easter service broadcast here from the hillside back of the Desert Inn early in April, will be heard again next Sunday when the recorded program will be presented at Community church in connection with the 11 a.m. service, Dr. Macartney, pastor, announced this week.

"The Columbia Broadcasting company has obtained a most remarkable transcript of the service," Dr. Macartney said. "With the new reproduction equipment now installed in the church, this fine 30-minute program can be enjoyed at any time."

"All of the sixty voices and musicians who appeared on the Easter morning broadcast will want to be present next Sunday morning to hear their own voices in the recording of this splendid program."

So perfect is the transcription, said Dr. Macartney, that even the singing of the birds got into the record.

"The winged songsters, provoked to melody by the choirs, come in for beautiful recognition," said the pastor.

Donald Cole is in charge of the presentation.

The usual Sunday morning service will follow the recording.
